

BURGLARY COMMITTED FORTY MILES AN HOUR

The Curious Manner in Which Hobos Invaded a Diner.

Deputy Sheriff W. T. Williams of Gila Bend came to town yesterday with four hobos who had been arrested there on the charge of entering an open car and stealing a small quantity of merchandise. They were convicted of petty larceny and sentenced to the county jail for fifteen days. Two of the hobos were colored and two white. The deputy sheriff brought a story of a double jail break at Gila Bend following one of the most spectacular crimes on record, the burglary of a Pullman diner while a train was running forty miles an hour between Maricopa and Gila Bend. How such a feat could be accomplished does not at first glance seem clear. The hobos were not in the train which was vestibuled. But though the burglars were not in the train they were necessarily very close to it. They were riding "on top."

A FAMILY AFFAIR AT EASTLAKE PARK

Benjamin Reynolds' New Dramatic Company Will Play Its First Engagement on Friday and Saturday Nights

The Raymond players having disbanded, Benjamin Reynolds whose capable work on the stage this summer has been noted by the Phoenix people, has organized a new company composed of all the old members except Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker, and proposes to undertake the project of a road show. His financial resources are somewhat limited at the present time, but he is assured of ample assistance as soon as the company reaches California, until which time it will be rather a cooperative organization and will be launched with two performances at Eastlake park, Friday and Saturday nights which the friends of the company are encouraging as being somewhat in the nature of benefit entertainments. Manager Mitchell has kindly donated the use of the theater and a number of Phoenix business men have arranged for the local advertising and the placing of an advance man on the road.

The company will leave here Sunday morning, playing in Wickenburg Sunday night. From there it will go to Prescott and along the line of the Santa Fe to Los Angeles. In that city the company will be further strengthened and go to Bakersfield where Mr. Reynolds has intimate relations with the local field and where he has the assurance of continued business in one of the Bakersfield theaters and the financial backing of its management. He believes the company will have smooth sailing after the start is made.

It is proposed to play at popular prices, 15c, 25c and 50c, and the bill offered here will be "A Family Affair."

an interesting farce comedy. There are ten people in the company, one of whom has gone ahead as an advance man, leaving nine to participate in the performances here. Mr. Reynolds assures those who come, of witnessing a good show, and their patronage will be greatly appreciated by all the members of his company as well as by himself. If the interest taken by the many personal friends of the members of the new company is any criterion, the theater will be packed at both performances.

The Effect of the Late Spectacular Movement Has Passed Away.

New York, Sept. 30.—The stock market today gave evidence that it passed through all the usual counter fluctuations which follow the culmination of a speculative movement of any duration. Prices were practically motionless. There were no large operations perceptible and no signs of outside interest. Bishop on Sunday Games.
Bishop Grafton of the Episcopal diocese of Fond du Lac, Wis., whose attention was called to an attack on Sunday baseball by one of his clergy, gave the following as his views on the much discussed question: "Whether any recreation on Sunday is allowable must depend upon the individual conscience. If recreation interferes with his primal duty to God, then it ought to be given up, and while a number of devout Christians would abstain from the recreation named, there are others who look at baseball games or attend a free concert at the park, which is not harmful to their spiritual life, they having done their duty by attending in the morning divine worship prescribed by Christ. Sunday is a day of devotion, rest and recreation. While the church forbids all servile work that can be avoided, it does not interfere with any recreation that does not interfere with a Christian's devotional duty."
